

Resolution 2009-4. Endorsing Educational Policy Committee Efforts to Investigate Grading Policy Reforms

The Faculty Council resolves

WHEREAS, the Educational Policy Committee (EPC) has been tracking grading practices since 2000;

and WHEREAS, concerns have been raised inside UNC and at other universities about the long-term meaning of grades;

and WHEREAS, several options have been presented for further consideration;

THEREFORE, the Faculty Council endorses the EPC's goal of investigating specific options for grading policy reform during the 2009-10 academic year and anticipates a policy proposal during the spring, 2010 semester.
